RED CROSS AND ST. JOHN WAR ORGANISATION, ST. JAMES'S PALACE, LONDON, SW1

VOL. 2. No. 17

Free to Next of Kin

SEPTEMBER, 1945

The Editor Writes —

DURING a recent tour of a number of counties in England and Wales I visited county representatives of the Red Cross and St. John, packing centres, prisoners' friends and others who are helping next of kin to solve their many little problems. It was a most impressive and heartening experience. All over the country, it seems, there are people devoting themselves for many hours of every day to the service of P.O.W.s and their next of kin. They are making or packing garments, interviewing, visiting, advising and helping next of kin in a hundred-and-one ways. In some counties one "prisoners' friend" can look after 50 or 50 relatives in a populous area. In one large county I visited it required 100 prisoners' friends to keep in touch with not many more than 100 next of kin, scattered widely over rural areas, and seldom visiting the nearest town.

remote. Now, through the Journal, one can see practical results. This to him, and he thinks to many others, is an encouragement and a stimulation to persevere. Such a tribute is welcome reading to an editor and his colleagues.

Maps of the Camps

With this issue we present our readers with new maps of Germany and Italy showing the location of all known prison camps. If extra copies are desired they can be obtained at 2d. each, or by post 3d. from the Prisoners of War Department, Accountants' Section, St. James's Palace, S.W.1. Larger sized maps are also available for 1s., or by post, 1s. 2d.

Conditions at Milag

Mr. J. E. Wainwright, Chief Officer of the "Salmonpool," who has been repatriated from the Milag Section of Marlag and Milag, writes that there are about 3,500 seamen in the camp and that conditions are satisfactory with very little to complain about. Parcels and mail arrive regularly and the general health of the camp is good. Regulations regarding behaviour are not too strict, and punishments are never heavy. This section of the camp is nearly three-quarters of a mile round, and contains excellent cricket, football and baseball grounds. Each hut has its own garden in addition to a general vegetable garden for the camp. Sports, dances, whist drives, bridge drives, lectures and a very well-equipped library are among the attractions.

Praise for Camp Leadership

In a letter of thanks "for everything" to the Red Cross Prisoner of War Bureau in Cairo a repatriated P.O.W. calls attention to the excellent work being done by the responsible British personnel in an Italian prison camp. He singles out for mention R.S.M. Tom Hagarly, who is doing a most fair and efficient job under frequently difficult conditions; Capts. Miller and Duff, medical officers, Capts. Mathewson and Nye, podres, and the captain dentist "whose name escapes me." All, he says, with limited facilities worked hard, cheerfully and with good results maintaining high standards of health and morale.

A Worker's Tribute

It was good to learn that they were all highly appreciative of The Prisoner of War. A letter which reached me spontaneously from a county I have not visited is so enthusiastic that I cannot resist the temptation of quoting from it. "I can assure you," says the writer, "that no anxious mother or devoted wife reads the journal with greater attention than I do. Its issue has made a great difference to prisoner of war work. Before, one often felt that the effect of one's work was very that. Most of the energy was expended in the initial phase of the attack, when the two men often had to pull in a line or two after each other, and hence probably expended more energy. The following day they were able to make several complaints on the spot. A comparison was made by means of a scale built from "King Size" (200) and "100's" (100) cigarettes.

Camps 10161 G.W., 10162 G.W., were described as fairly good. Lighting was satisfactory; smoking and heating facilities were poor. When, however, these defects are improved, both camps should be satisfactory.

MAIL FROM FAR EAST

THE Postmaster General desires to announce that on board the British Overseas Airways Corporation flying-boat which crashed in Java on July 26th was a quantity of mail from British prisoners of war in Japanese hands, the greater part of which is reported to have been destroyed. Of an estimated total of some 30,000 letters and postcards from these prisoners only about 2,570 items have been salvaged. The salvaged correspondence is being put into course for delivery as soon as possible.

The Postmaster General desires to express his sincere sympathy with relatives, who, having waited anxiously for so long for news of men reported missing in the Far East theatres of war, have suffered disappointment through this unfortunate accident.

The Protecting Power will be asked to take such steps as are possible to expedite further consignments of mail from the Far East.

PLEASE NOTE

The Censorship requires that a price mark or ticket should remain on nothing sent to prisoners of war.

We should be grateful if none of you would remove these when preparing their parcels.

PHOTOS OF R.A.F. PERSONNEL

We understand that Air Force personnel (both men and women) may not mention their connections with the Air Force in letters to prisoners of war and civilian internees, and that photographs of Air personnel in uniform may not be sent to them.

NUMBER, PLEASE!

PLEASE be sure to mention your Red Cross reference number whenever you write to us. Otherwise delay and trouble are caused in finding previous correspondence.

Any Questions?

New R.A.F. Camp

My son mentions that Stalag Luft III has moved to Stalag Luft 6. Also that all parcels should be addressed to the new camp but letters should still be addressed to Stalag Luft III as this is still a censoring depot. Could you give me some idea where the new camp is situated?

Stalag Luft III has not been moved, but a new camp, Stalag Luft 6, has been opened, and a number of prisoners from Stalag Luft III have been sent there. The new camp is at Heydekrug, about 30 miles south of Mennin, in East Prussia. Letters to prisoners in the R.A.F. and Fleet Air Arm in Germany should all be addressed to Stalag Luft III, with the address of the camp where the prisoner is actually interned in brackets after it. Parcels should be addressed direct to the prisoner's camp.

Cooking Utensils

Are the prison camp authorities obliged to provide cooking utensils?

The Detaining Power is responsible for providing cooking utensils for prisoners of war.

Cigarettes

I want to send my son, a P.O.W. in Germany, cigarettes but my local village shop has not an export licence. What should I do?

You should ask the shopkeeper to get into touch with his wholesale supplier about this.

How Many Letters?

Is there any regulation about the number of letters a P.O.W. may send from his camp in Germany?

Other prisoners of war are usually allowed to write three letters and four postcards each month, and other ranks two letters and four postcards.

Repatriated P.O.W.

If my son, recently repatriated from Italy, be included out of the Army? He has lost one eye and is an aviator about his future.

Your son will no doubt be informed direct as soon as practicable as to his future by the appropriate military authorities. Each case is understood to be specially considered on its merits.

Visits of Camps

How often are camps visited by representatives of the Protecting Power?

We understand that visits are not necessarily made at fixed intervals.

Medical Care of P.O.W.s

Do British doctors look after the sick prisoners of war in the prison camp hospitals?

In most cases, yes. They are usually assisted by British medical orderlies.

Repatriated P.O.W.

My son in Germany mentions that he hopes to be repatriated shortly. Can you give me any official news?

If your son should be repatriated you would be informed by the Service Department concerned.

P.O.W.s "On Parade"

Are P.O.W.s allowed out of the camps "on parade"?

Yes, at the discretion of the camp authorities.

Write Legibly

Should letters be typed to prisoners of war in Germany and Italy?

Letters need not be typed, but should be written in ink and as legibly as possible.

Merchant Seamen

Is a merchant seaman a civilian internee or a prisoner of war?

Merchant seamen are usually interned in special camps, in which they are accorded the rights and privileges of prisoners of war.

Campo P.G. 29 and P.G. 73

Can you tell me the location of Campo P.G. 29 and P.G. 73?

P.G. 29 P.M. 3,400 is at Viano, about 30 miles south-west of Reggio; P.G. 73 P.M. 2,000 is at Modena, both in northern Italy.

Books in Welsh

Can I send books in Welsh to my husband, a P.O.W. in Germany?

Yes, though permit holders; but their ownership might delay their delivery to the recipient.

Photos for P.O.W.s

May I send my husband in a German camp a photograph of myself and my baby?

Suspensions or unmounted photographs of a personal nature may be enclosed in letters (not in the air-mail letter-cards) to prisoners of war.
